

Remember, Remember

The Fifth of November

Here's a Bonfire Night wordsearch. How many words can you see?

1. These are colourful and go 'bang' in the sky - f_____

2. A type of the thing in number 1 which goes up y - r_____

3. When we burn wood - b_____

8. The doll which we make and burn on a fire to remember the story of the man in picture 6/7 - we call the doll a _____.

4. Something sticky and sweet that we put on apples - t_____.

5. A pretty firework you can hold in your hand and wave - s_____.

6/7. The man who Bonfire Night is about - Guy F_____, and his crime t_____.

Now use the words to complete the text about Bonfire Night.

Bonfire Night is celebrated in Britain on November 5th. People use wood to make _____. They let off beautiful, colourful _____ like _____ which soar into the sky, and wave _____. They often eat t_____ apples - apples with a sticky, sweet covering on sticks.

But why does this happen? It's a very old story! In 1605, a man called Guy _____ and his friends wanted to kill King James I. They put gunpowder under the Houses of Parliament. However, their plan failed! They were arrested for _____ (crimes against the King) and executed. We remember the story every year by making a doll called a _____ and burning it!

Remember, Remember

The Fifth of November

Answer the questions.

1. When do we celebrate Bonfire Night? _____
2. What do we use to make fires? _____
3. When did people try to kill King James I? _____
4. What did they put under Parliament? _____
5. Did the men kill the King? _____
6. What happened to the men? _____

Here's a very famous chant about Bonfire Night. Can you match the words from it to these sound?

reason plot forgot remember treason November

/e/

/i:/

/o/

Now practice the chant with your group.

*Remember, remember, the Fifth of November,
Gunpowder, Treason and Plot.
I know of no reason
Why the Gunpowder Treason
Should ever be forgot.*